

was just made. The only suggestion with this amendment is that the exact meaning of the Hartnett amendment is switched over to the public meeting sector of the statute so that when you're looking for what you have to do for public meetings, you can look in one place instead of worrying about whether they're in different sections of the statutes. I just thought it'd be helpful for the people who look at statutes the most often to have it in one place. It doesn't make any change whatsoever to the Hartnett amendment.
